Dear Parents / Annwyl Rieni

I hope this final newsletter of the autumn term finds you well and prepared for Christmas (it is hard to believe that it is only a day away)! These last few days have seen a number of pupils (and staff) being under the weather, however, I am sure that after the two week break we'll be back to running on all cylinders! Thanks as always need to go to the staff members, who work diligently to ensure that the children have such a great variety of learning experiences at school, as well as arranging all the added extras! I am looking forward to all of the new topics that will be starting in school in 2023!

Wishing you a relaxing Christmas holiday and a reminder that we will be welcoming the children back to school on Tuesday, 10th January.

Gobeithio gyda chylchlythyr olaf hwn o dymor yr hydref eich bod yn cadw'n iawn ac yn barod ar gyfer y Nadolig (mae'n anodd credu bod Diwrnod Nadolig ond un diwrnod i ffwrdd!) Mae'r dyddiau diwethaf yma wedi gweld nifer o ddisgyblion (a staff) yn sâl, fodd bynnag, dwi'n siŵr ar ôl y seibiant o bythefnos y byddwn ni'n barod ar gyfer y tymor newydd!

Hoffwn ddiolch i aelodau'r staff, sydd bob amser yn gweithio'n galed iawn i sicrhau bod y plant yn cael amrywiaeth mor wych o brofiadau dysgu yn yr ysgol, yn ogystal â threfnu'r holl bethau ychwanegol! Rwy'n edrych ymlaen at yr holl bynciau newydd fydd yn dechrau yn yr ysgol yn 2023!

Gan ddymino Nadolig Llawen i chi gyd a nodyn i'ch atgoffa y byddwn yn croesawu'r plant yn ôl i'r ysgol ar ddydd Mawrth, Ionawr 10fed.

*Yours sincerely / Yn gywir,
Mr Richard Monteiro, Pennaeth*

* What We've Been Up To *

The spirit of Christmas!

This week dosbarth iau finished their sequels to the story 'The Snowman' and turned them into illustrated books.

We made over 50 copies of our different stories and wrapped them up as Christmas presents. We delivered some to the infants who loved them so much they wrote their own books and sent them back to the juniors as presents.

Then, yesterday we wrapped up warm and followed a map around the village to post more presents through the letterboxes of randomly chosen homes.

The children had a brief rest stop for a play in the park and some hot chocolate to warm us up when they got back to school.

We were all overwhelmed with the positive response from our community, with lots of lovely messages on Facebook, phone calls to school and even a thank you visit to school from Mrs Duffy, who had received a book by Lettie.

What a wonderful way to start Christmas!
